

Dear Mr. Pitt and Ms Pitt,

I was extremely pleased to have found out that I was a recipient of Michael L. and Peggy Goldberg Pitt Endowed Award. I am writing to extend a thank you to you for financial generosity.

As you know from my application letter, I hope to use my law degree in a way to help those who have impairments. I know from my own experience that society has constructed barriers, whether intentional or unintentional, that effect people with both mental and physical disabilities. After graduation I hope to work on deconstructing those barriers in the area of disability law.

By awarding me the Michael L. and Peggy Goldberg Pitt Endowed Award you have taken away some of the financial cost of pursuing a law degree. This allows me to focus on my education, which is extremely important to me. Interestingly enough, in the past few weeks my computer has been giving me difficulties and I know that it is just a matter of time before it stops working completely. Your financial generosity has helped me move closer to achieving my goals and to giving back to the community.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read "Jeremy Richard Diamond". The signature is fluid and cursive, with a large loop at the end.

Jeremy Richard Diamond

To Mr. & Mrs. Pit,

Thank you so much for your generous contribution to my education.

Life is very expensive no matter your situation, and being disable just adds one more burden.

Your scholarship has been extremely valuable to me in ~~and~~ balancing my obligations
as a student with a disability.

Thank you very much,

Chelsea Fleetham.